Born in the early 1890s to German/Polish immigrants Hedwig "Hattie" Petrowick and Vincentius "Joe" Bleja, listed as Paulenia Bleja in the 1900 Census, as age 9, DOB Jan 1890. That Census has inked-in corrections and has her as born in Michigan, though she is later listed as born in Ohio, where the family relocated some time after sister Rose's 1887 birth. Her obituary and death records have age 67, which would have her being born about 1893 in Toledo.

Most of Pauline's siblings went by the surname "Blair," with their father being listed as "Joe Blair" on at least 4 of his children's marriage records. Mrs. Pauline White is listed a surviving sister in the obituaries of Thomas Blair and Agnes Kornet.

Pauline married John H Glenn 13 Jan 1920 in Lawrence County, Tennessee (unknown why there).

According to family lore, they had two children, Lawrence born in 1921 and Isabelle born in 1923. A third child, Joseph was born in Ohio about 1925 and subsequently given up for adoption as John Glenn apparently abandoned his family before his birth. John's brother, Charlie N Glenn and wife Ella adopted the two older children.

Pauline married Ralph Eugene White in 1947. They remained together until her death in 1960 and are buried together in Toledo Memorial Park.
